

Here's how it works

You are welcome to do this devotional series as an individual or together with your family. Each day, beginning on December 2nd, read through the daily scripture passage and reflect on what you've read. Maybe there is a theme to the passage or a particular word or phrase that stands out to you?

After reflection, take a picture that connects to the passage in some way. You might take it literally—taking a picture of a rainbow for the story of Noah, for example. Or you might work more figuratively, taking a picture of something in your life that reminds you of God's promises. See the next page for some examples.

Send your picture as an email attachment to Steven Bohn: steven@standrewboulder.org. Feel free to send along a few reflecting thoughts or photo description if you'd like to, or you may simply just send the photo. Please make sure to mention the daily passage that your photo is connected to.

Each Friday in Advent, Steven will send out a special edition of the church e-news, with your photos from the week, so that we may all celebrate Advent together!

"I am now setting up my covenant with you, with your descendants..." Genesis 9:9

My Journals date back to 1999. They've got notes on life, travels, friendships, love, thoughts. There are many prayers. And looking back in these pages, I can see the slow process of sanctification. Deuteronomy 5:22

RAM // I tried very hard to follow God's call to parish ministry. I gathered the tools and climbed the mountain, all the while trying to listen and check my heart for obedience. But, in the end, it seems, God provided a ram: a posting for a position that caused my soul to vibrate for the first time in a while. This work challenges me daily, but its rightness assures me that the Lord provides. Genesis 22:13

God Leads and God moves. God answers and God reveals. Proclaim God's truth and righteousness faithfully. God's watch post. Habakkuk 2:1-4
