

Christian Education at St. Andrew

Sundays at 9:30 am

There will be no education classes on January 27. Everyone is invited to join us in the Parish Hall at 9:30am for the annual congregational meeting and breakfast.

Faith Matters Class in Room 312 (Upstairs, across from the Parlor)

Celebrating Baptism – January 13

Why do Presbyterians not have Godparents? Why do we baptize babies instead of do "believer baptism"? Why do we refuse when people ask to be baptized again after a major event in their life or faith? Join Rev. Jacqueline Decker Vanderpol for a reflection on what baptism means to us and how that's different and similar to other denominations and faith traditions.

Multifaith Collaboration: Deepening the Muslim Conversation – January 20

Our good friends from the Outreach Team of the Islamic Center of Boulder will return to our Faith Matters class to continue our conversation together as we enjoy and learn from our interfaith journey together. Come with your questions, and open hearts and minds, as we journey together with our neighbors and do the good work God has called us all to share!

Video Series Class in the Parlor

The History of Christianity: From the Disciples to the Reformation

For nearly 2,000 years, the Christian faith has remained near the center of Western moral debate and conceptions of human identity, just action, and ultimate meaning. In this series, we'll study the story of Christianity's first 1,500 years, in all its remarkable diversity and complex dimension.
